After a decade in the asset based lending business with a specialty in stock lending, we have seen a lot of inaccurate information being published all over the internet.

This is our attempt to publish what we believe to be the best practices in the industry. Along with third party resources so clients and prospective clients alike can do their own research.

We have published a new Question and Answer summary along with archives of all our old newsletters and a separate research section on recent court cases that impact the taxation issues with stock loans.

It is important to note that we are but humble lenders. We are not attorney's, CPAs, or financial advisors and we strongly recommend that you seek individual counsel relative to your particular situation from a properly qualified and licensed advisor.

From the Founder

The main problem I see on a day to day basis is that there are so many people talking about the economy and stocks and I'm convinced they are really just guessing.

As a result, we see the markets going up and down dramatically each day as the news from Capital Hill, Greece, Italy or China dribbles in.

What we do know is that the market has rallied strongly from the 2009 lows and is right back to where it was in the fall of 2008. As always there is a lot of volatility in the market.

Our clients have two primary ways to leverage their financial assets and deal with the underlying volatility. Our Freedom Loan program works to manage the volatility for them by eliminating margin calls while our Value loan program offers maximum flexibility with the assets pledged as collateral while offering rock bottom rates.

How can we help you meet your financing objectives? Give me a call and I'll be happy to discuss your specific situation.
